TIMELINE OF CARE - LATENT TB

What happens when you are taking:

Isoniazid

1st Visit
- You may see a: nurse, doctor, pharmacist
- Talk about:
  - Latent tuberculosis
  - Your TB medicine
  - Lab work (blood tests) needed
- Give you:
  - a lab requisition
- Answer any questions you have
- Up to 1 hour

* Monthly Visits
- You may see a: nurse, doctor
- Talk about:
  - How often you take your medicine (it's helpful to bring them in with you) and how they make you feel
  - Blood work results
  - How you are coping
- Answer any questions you have
- * Visits are every month at first, then every two months if things are going well.
- 15 minutes

 Final Visit
- You may see a: nurse, doctor
- Talk about:
  - How treatment is going
  - What happens after you finish your medicine
  - If we need to see you again
- Give you:
  - a card saying you finished your TB pills. Congratulations!
- Answer any questions you have
-  The final visit may be by phone.
- 15 minutes

At least 9 months of medicine and follow-up

We will:
- Up to 1 hour
- 15 minutes
- 15 minutes