The Provincial Point of Care (POC) HIV Testing Program provides a centralized testing, distribution and quality assurance program to a variety of community and health service delivery organizations across British Columbia. Each marker on the map represents a site where POC HIV testing is currently being offered.

Point of Care HIV Testing Sites Supported by BCCDC

There are 82 provincial POC sites.

Last updated: November 28, 2019