

BC Centre for Disease Control
An agency of the Provincial Health Services Authority

Communicable Diseases and Immunization Service
655 West 12th Avenue
Vancouver, BC V5Z 4R4

Tel 604.707.2548
Fax 604.707.2515

www.bccdc.ca

Communicable Disease Control Manual

Chapter 2: Immunization

Part 2 – Immunization of Special Populations

Table of Contents

Individuals at High Risk for Vaccine Preventable Diseases (Overview)

- Individuals at High Risk for Vaccine Preventable Diseases

Immunocompromised Individuals (General Information)

- Immunocompromised Individuals
- Household Contacts of Immunocompromised Individuals
- General Principles for Immunization of the Immunocompromised
- Immunization with Inactivated and Live Vaccines
- Considerations for MMR and Varicella Immunization of Immunosuppressed Individuals

Referral Forms

- Referral Form for Varicella Vaccination
- Referral Form for MMR Vaccination
- Referral Form for Rotavirus Vaccination
- Referral Form for Live Attenuated Influenza Vaccination

Specific Immunocompromising Conditions

- Anatomic or Functional Asplenia
- Congenital Immunodeficiency States
- Hematopoietic Stem Cell Transplantation (HSCT)
- Immunization of Pediatric Oncology Clients
- Approval for Immunization of Pediatric Oncology and HSCT Clients Who Have Completed Treatment
- Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) Infection
- Immunosuppressive Therapy
- Chronic Kidney Disease
- Chronic Liver Disease
- Adults with Malignant Neoplasm (Including Leukemia and Lymphoma)
- Candidate for or Recipient of Solid Organ or Islet Cell Transplant

Other High Risk Conditions

- Infants at High Risk for Hepatitis B
 - High Risk Neonatal Hepatitis B Immunization Program (Letter for Health Care Providers)
- Individuals with Bleeding Disorders
- Chronic Heart or Lung Disease
- Chronic Cerebrospinal Fluid (CSF) Leak
- Cochlear Implant
- Cystic Fibrosis
- Diabetes Mellitus
- Individuals with Neurologic Disorders
- Women Who are Pregnant or Planning a Pregnancy

- Infants Born Prematurely

Select Populations

- Health Care Workers
- Childcare Workers
- Inmates of Provincial Correctional Institutions
- International Travelers
- Males Who Have Sexual Contact With Other Males
- Individuals New to Canada
- Unknown or Uncertain Immunization Status/Inadequate Immunization Records

References

- References